
Cardiff University

We're the only Russell Group university in the UK to offer a range of professional legal training courses for those who wish to become a solicitor or barrister.

Cardiff Professional Legal Studies offers the Legal Practice Course (LPC) for graduates wishing to become solicitors, and the Bar Training Course (BTC) for graduates wishing to pursue a career as a barrister.

The LPC and the BTC can be studied either as part of an LLM or as a separate postgraduate diploma.

We also offer the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL), which is a law conversion course for non-law graduates.

Apply for full-time GDL and LPC and part-time LPC courses via LawCAB.
