
Solicitors Legal Skills Module (SQE2 Prep)

The College of Legal Practice offers stand-alone accredited SQE1 and SQE2 preparation courses and a full LLM in Legal Practice that includes SQE preparation. Courses are highly flexible and available full-time or part-time. Expert practitioners will guide you with one-to-one personal supervision through our one-of-a-kind online platform.

The College offers Law School level training, quality assured by our registration as a higher-education provider in England. It is backed by 50 years' experience of postgraduate legal training through our not-for-profit parent company, The College of Law in Australia, which helps thousands of lawyers to qualify every year.

Course information

Our Solicitors Legal Skills module will fully prepare you for SQE2. The module helps you apply fundamental legal principles in skills-based situations. You will learn to demonstrate that you can perform the roles and tasks required by a newly qualified solicitor.

Apply through LawCAB using the SQE course application form.

Eligibility requirements

Must have completed an SQE1 preparation course or have sat the SQE1 assessment (so therefore must have a UK degree (FHEQ level 6 or above) or equivalent (inc. equivalent work experience), IELTS if English isn't the first language, and a legal background in England and Wales is strongly recommended.
